College of Military Engineering

Institute of National Integration, Pune

The NSS unit of Dr. Rafiq Zakaria College for Women, Aurangabad has organized a guest lecture on 11th August 2018 in our college campus.

The programme started with Naat. Ms. Alfiya Kazi of B.A. III Year recited Naat and with the blessing of Almighty we started with the programme. Dr. Mahlaqua Khan, Asst. Prof. in English did comparing. Principal, Dr. Mazahar Farooqui felicitated the guest and Dr. Kusum Rana, HOD, Dept. of Hindi introduced the Guest.

In this lecture, we paid homage to our late founder and chairman, Dr. Rafiq Zakaria Sahab and then had an very strong interaction with the NSS Volunteers.

In his speech, he said, the role of a teacher in society is both significant and valuable. It has far reaching influence on the society he lives in, and no other personality can have an influence more profound than that of a teacher.

Many educationalists have described the teacher in different ways. Some described the teacher as a dispenser of knowledge, while others see him as a leader, counsel or coach, facilitator and a role model.

A good and visionary teacher can play a prominent role in making the future of his students. The teacher is an architect of any future generation. So to assume the responsibility of a teacher one has to be competent, morally upright and knowledge. The roles of the teacher are numerous and challenging.

The teacher is the bridge between these two extremities. Studies reveal that a hardworking teacher is often admitted by students and members of the general society. A side of the academics students also try to learn their teachers mannerism modes of dressing, etiquettes, style of conservation and others. For student to grow up as a responsible citizen, the teacher is needed.

After teaching students simple geometry and arithmetic for instance virtues such as punctuality, truth, hard work, honesty, simplicity, hygiene, patriotism, love and sincerity, obedience, tolerance etc. Society needs these values to develop.

Parents / guardians should supplement teacher efforts at promoting education in the country. Teachers must develop satisfaction for their profession and heartily perform their duties even in the face of some challenges.

Based on "Rath" wheel of the Konark Sun Temple situated in Orissa, these giant wheel of the Sun Temple portray the cycle of creation, presentation and release and signify the movement in life across time and space. The design of the symbol, a simplified form of the Sun – Chariot Wheel primarily depicts movement. The wheel signifies the progressive cycle of life. It stands for continuity as well as change and implies the continuous striving of NSS for social transformation and upliftment.

NSS Badges:

NSS symbol is embossed on NSS Badges the NSS volunteers wear it while undertaking any programme of community service. The Konark Wheel in the symbol has 8 bars which represents the 24 hours. The Red colour in the badge indicates that the NSS volunteers are full of bold i.e. lively active energetic and full of high spirit. The many blue colours indicates the cosmos of which the NSS is a tiny part ready to contribute its share for the welfare of the mankind.

Lecture On Non-Violence
3rd October 2018

Our college NSS unit has organized a lecture of Dr. Shriram Jadhav, Ex-Director, Gandhi Research Centre, Deogiri College, Aurangabad on Monday i.e. 3rd October 2018 in our college campus.

It was a very knowledgeable lecture as he had shared his vast experience with our NSS volunteers.

Dr. Mazahar Farooqui, Principal of our college welcomed him with a floral bouquet and has expressed of gratitude to interact with one NSS volunteers.

Dr. Shriram Jadhav in his lecture said "To understand Gandhi is a very difficult and Hard Job". He stated that there are 11 different values on which Gandhiji worked and followed the Principles of Buddha, Mahavir, Gopal Krishna, Gokhale expressed that Gandhiji चाले नसे बोले. He said that ^{Good}~~good~~ is truth but followed that truth is ^{Good}~~good~~.

According to Gandhiji "Non Violence" or Ahimse is one of the carlinal virtues. It is a multidimenstional concept and an important of Jainism, Hinduism and Buddhism inspired by the premise that all living beings have the spark of the divine spiritual energy therefore to hurt another being is to hurt ourself. On a national level, the strategy of non-violence action seeks to undermine the power of rulers by encouring people to with draw their consent and co-operation. The forms of non violence draw inspiration from both religious or ethical benefits beliefs and political analysis.

Religious or ethically based non-violence is sometimes referred to as Principles, philosophical or ethical non violence when non violence based on political analysis is often referred to as tactical, strategic or ^{pragmatic} non violent action. Commonly both of these dimensions may be present within the thinking of particular movements or individuals.

Ahinsa is the highest virtue, is the highest self-control, the greatest gift and is the best suffering. Ahinsa is the highest sacrifice, the finest strength and is the greatest friend and happiness. Ahinsa is the highest truth, and is also the greatest teaching.

According to Hinduism Ahinsa Parano Dharma which literally means: Non-Violence is the highest moral virtue.

For example:

अहिंसा परमो धर्मस तथाहिंसा परो दमः ।
अहिंसा परमदानम् अहिंसा परमस तपः ।
अहिंसा परमोयज्ञस तथाहिंसा परं बलम् ।
अहिंसा परममित्रम् अहिंसा परमं सुखम् ।
अहिंसा परमं सत्यम् अहिंसा परमं शरत्तमम् ॥

Ahinsa in Jainism is the hand with a wheel on the palm symbolizes the Jain vow of Ahinsa. The wheel represents the Dharmachakra which stands for the resolve to halt the cycle of reincarnation through relentless pursuit of truth and non-violence. The statement Ahinsa Paramo dharmah is often found inscribed on the walls of the Jain temples. Like in Hinduism, the aim is to prevent accumulation of harmful karma.

Non violence is an overriding theme within the Pali Canon. Ahinsa is a part of the five precepts (Pancasila), this precept of Ahinsa is applicable to both the Buddhist Layperson and the Monk community.

Non violence is a powerful and just weapon. Indeed it is a weapon unique in history which cuts without wounding and enables the man who wields it.
